- iii. Thank you to Lecolion for attending Lumin's special luncheon to honor our Montessori teachers and to celebrate the establishment of the Galbraith Montessori Teacher endowment. .

H. Promote

- i. Lumin Education's story was recently published in the Journal of the Southern Early Childhood Association. "Transformative Education in Dallas: The Story of Lumin Education. But, Isn't Montessori for Rich Kids?" by Jacqueline Cossentino and Terry N. Ford in Dimensions of Early Childhood Education, Vol. 6 #2, Special Issue: Supporting Children Living in Poverty.

I. Celebrate!

- i. In October, Lumin was awarded the Blue Ribbon Model Affiliate designation from Parents As Teachers (PAT) for exemplary delivery of high-quality services to children and families.

This award was earned by meeting or exceeding the PAT Essential Requirements and meeting at least 75% of the additional PAT Quality Standards. In fact, Lumin exceeded expectations with Lumin's East Dallas program meeting 87% of the Quality Standards and Lumin's Bachman Lake campus' program meeting 91%.

We commend our terrific Home Visiting staff!

- ii. Lumin has successfully ended our partnership with Wesley-Rankin Community Center. We have settled up financially and closed down Lumin's operations in West Dallas. We continue to be on good terms with the community center.
- iii. Thanks to additional public funding from the Texas Home Visiting Grant (referred to nationally as MIECHV), Lumin has increased the number of families served by 20. This increases our total home visiting enrollment slots for children to 280.

MIECHV funding comes from the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services and is administered through the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas. Lumin's Performance Expectations Agreement is with the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas.

MIECHV funds home visiting for children ages 0 to 5 at Lumin Bachman Lake Community School. This program year, our MIECHV funding was increased by $39,500. This allows us to hire another Parent Educator and increase the number of MIECHV families from 60 to 80.

- iv. Thanks to additional public funding from HOPES (Healthy Opportunities for Prevention and Early Support), the number of Lumin home visiting enrollment slots for children that are partially covered by public funds (including HOPES, MIECHV, and EHS) has increased from 250 to 272.

HOPES funding comes from the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services and is administered through the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas. Our Performance Expectations Agreement is with the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas.

The 2018-2019 program year is our third year to receive HOPES funding. This year we received $131,889, which is an increase of $59,985 from last year. Consequently, we are able to increase the number of families served from 20 to 40.

These 20 new families include the 15 that we continue to serve from West Dallas, which we are now serving out of our East Dallas campus. HOPES now funds 66% (up from 41% last year) of our Lumin East Dallas Community School home visiting program and thus further reduces our dependence on private funds.
